The fellowing information has been supplied by confidential sources of this Bureau who have furnished reliable information in the past.

In early December, 1966, Stanley Levison, an adviser to Martin Luther King, Jr., President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, learned that King's erganization was about to receive a loan of $4,000,000 from the Federal Mousing Administration. This was due to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference's involvement in the slum clearance program in Chicago, Illinois. An erganization entitled the Community Relations Foundation will be involved in the financial transaction.

A group of prominent Megroes from Chicago has agreed to put up $50,000 in an effort to obtain this loan, and will operate as the Four Prophets Corporation. Levison has been urged to help the Southern Christian Leadership Conference raise $25,000, or fifty per cent, in order to buy half of the stock in this corporation. The Southern Christian Leadership Conference would then share accordingly in the ten per cent return allowed by the Federal Mousing Administration, namely, $400,000 on their $50,000 inventment.

According to a source, King has teld Levison that he wanted to see Negro businessmen take a profit on this project. King also wants his own erganization, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, to get a percentage of the profit. Levison advised King he would pledge $12,500 of his own money and can raise the additional $12,500 so that the Southern Christian Leadership Conference would contribute fifty per cent of the accessary capital.

advised on 12/3/66 that Stanley Levison, a long-time secret communist and now a principal adviser to Martin Luther King, Jr., President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, was in contact with Chauncey Eskridge, a Chicago, Illinois, attorney and adviser to King. They discussed the fact that King's organization was about to receive a loan of $4,000,000 from the Federal Housing Administration. This was due to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference's involvement in the slum clearance program in Chicago, Illinois. An organization entitled the Community Relations Foundation will be involved in the financial transaction.

A group of prominent Negroes from Chicago has agreed to put up $50,000 in an effort to obtain this loan. They will operate as the Four Prophets Corporation. Levison has been urged to raise $25,000 so that the Southern Christian Leadership Conference can buy 50% of the stock in the above-named corporation. The Southern Christian Leadership Conference would then share accordingly in the 10% return allowed by the Federal Housing Administration, hamely, $400,000 on their $50,000 investment.

This source advised that Levison discussed this matter with King on December 4, 1966. King told Levison that he wanted to see Negro businessmen take a profit on this project. King also wants his own organization, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, to get a percentage of the profit. Communist Infiltration of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, SCLC Internal Security - C

On December 3, 1966, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Stanley Levison and Chauncey (Chauncey Eskridge) Chicago attorney and adviser to the SCLC) were in contact on that date. Chaucey's main purpose in contacting Levison was to inform him that a four million/Federal Housing Administration (FHA) credit has been allocated to Martin Luther King (President of the SCLC) and the movement, and the Community Relations Foundation is going to process it.

Chauncey (Chauncey Eskridge) said a group of Negroes agreed to put up fifty thousand dollars in seven days to form a Four (Pn) Profit Corporation. The fifty thousand dollars will capitalize the Profit Corporation, and it will hire its own personnel, Chauncey said. The object of this corporation is to use the fifty thousand dollars in its operation and to use the four million dollars in FHA mortgage insurance credit in "all its different aspects such as, 221D3, rent supplemental or any other means." He said the object of the corporation will be to buy up all property and rehabilitate it. Chauncey pointed out that if all four million in credit were used, there would be a statutory return to the sponsors, and it would amount to a ten per cent return. Continuing, Chauncey enumerated two propositions which the SCLC has in connection with the allocation:

1. "If SCLC raises twenty five thousand dollars in capital, then the movement (SCLC) would share fifty-fifty with the sponsors fee; 2. If it decided to do nothing, then it would take sixty-forty, and in that event, the SCLC would get money, and would be only advisory to the Four Profit Corporation."

Continuing, Chaucey said he could not recall when Negroes had agreed to raise so much money. However, he added, on the other hand, if the SCLC could raise twenty-five thousand dollars on its own, then either the SCLC or its friends would own fifty per cent of the stock.

The spokesman for the financing group, Chauncey said, is the Chairman of the Negro Chamber of Commerce in Chicago, Illinois, Het said the Chairman is reising the money from among the members of the Chamber.

Levison then questioned Chauncey as to the experience of the financing group. Chauncey said there is an organization known as Urban America, which is a foundation benefic ent in new housing for Negroes, who has hired lawyers by the names of Webster and Gill, to take care of matters concerning the FHAlban.

The same confidential source advised on December 3, 1966, Martin Luther King and Stanley Levison were in contact on that date. It was during their contact that King mentioned with enthusiasm the fact that the FHA had allocated four million dollars in credit to the SCLC. He then said it(the loan) was imperative that it be made a part of the SCLC program for slum clearance, a program which involves about six hundred units. King inquired of Levison if he knew any people who could lend the SCLC $25,000. Levison said he could personally provide $12,500 immediately, and that he could get the remaining $12,500.

Communist Infiltration of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference

On December 4, 1966, according to the same confidential source, Stanley Levison and Richard Russell of Hartford, Connecticut, were in discussion, during which time Levison mentioned that the SCLC has been allocated a four million dollar credit by the FHA. Levison pointed out that the money would be spent to rehabilitate slum dwellings in Chicago. Levison said that under the allocation arrangement, it was calculated so that a ten per cent profit could be realized on the mortgage amount, which would amount to about four hundred thousand dollars.

Levison said Martin Luther King wanted to see Negro businessmen take a profit on the project, but also wants to see the SCLC cut into it because "they" (SCLC) were the ones who produced the mortgages. Levison and Russell then discussed ways by which the SCLC could form a foundation to own the business involved in doing the rehabilitation work in Chicago.

SUBJECT: MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. SECURITY MATTER - COMMUNIST

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED OF DATE 1-17-81 BY 514 James

BACKGROUND:

As you were previously advised, the invoice utilized by Martin Luther King, Jr., President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, to bill the University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, for his appearance there on 11/2/66, contained the statement that one bodyguard be provided King, "as required by the FBI." The field was instructed to verify the existence of such a contract and then to set King straight.

The Special Agent in Charge (SAC) of the Pittsburgh Office verified the existence of the contract with the false phrase therein. The officials of the University of Pittsburgh were advised that this was a complete fabrication. They were also advised that this Bureau does not provide personal protection for any individual nor advise anyone of the protective measures that should be taken concerning bis safety.

When King was confronted by the SAC of the Atlanta Office with this information, he was apologetic and advised he was unaware that this phrase was in his billing invoice for his personal appearance at the University of Pittsburgh. He advised that he does not have a bodyguard and doesn't require one in his personal appearances. King further advised that all invoices for his appearances at colleges and universities are handled by the Adult Educational Council of Greater Chicago, Chicago, Illinois, and not by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference in Atlanta, Georgia. King expressed appreciation for this information and stated he would contact the above firm directly to make certain that appropriate corrective action is taken.

Educational Council of Greater Chicago, was contacted by the SAC of the Chicago Office concerning this invoice. She explained that she had a new stenographer assisting her on the particular date that the invoice in question was typed. She instructed this stenographer to include a statement concerning King's expenses, plus those of his bodyguard as required by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. She approved this communication out of her office without properly checking it. She stated that after the invoice had been sent out she noticed the error and did not know what corrective action to take. She just let the matter rest hoping it would not be noted. Was most apologetic and recognized that this was a most inaccurate statement using the letters FBI instead of SCLC. She advised that no reference to the FBI had been included in any other billings in connection with King's appearances. She pulled her file reflecting several appearances by King and in no other instance was the FBI noted on these vouchers.

OBSERVATIONS:

It would appear that the above invoice was utilized by the Adult Educational Council without King's knowledge. The Council's collection of expenses for a nonexistent bodyguard is an internal matter between King and the Council and of no interest to us.

The record has been set straight by taking corrective action against those involved and advising the University of Pittsburgh of the truth in this matter.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished the following information on November 30, 1966:

On November 30, 1966, Stanley Levison was in contact with Adele Kanter (Director of the New York, New York Office of the SCLC) regarding a request from the "Student Afro-American Society" for the SCLC to furnish two speakers to participate in a program on Saturday night (December 3, 1966). Kanter described the organization as mainly a Negro group at Columbia University 💫 New York, New York. Levison mentioned that he was familiar with the group.

Kanter, in elaborating on the type of program to be presented by the organization, said there would be a seminar following speeches by Floyd McKissick (National Director of the Congress of Recial Equality), James Farmer (former National Director of CORE), and James Meredith. After hearing this, Levison said the SCLC would not furnish speakers to participate, because in his opinion, it was an affront to the SCLC to follow the forementioned speakers. Kanter was told by Levison to inform the organization that the SCLC did not have speakers available for such a seminar in view of the fact that it did not have adequate time to prepare them.

Kenter also informed Levison that she had completed the list of names for Jackson (Jessie Jackson, Director, Department of Social Projects and Economic Development, SCLC). Kenter said the list contained about sixty names (apparently names of people whe will be contacted for contributions to the SCLC).

Levison was asked if he had given any more thought to "the Christmas card" idea. He told Kanter that he had studied the card entitled "The Children of Birmingham", but said he had not decided whether it should be sent out by the BOLC. He said he was conforming with a friend of his, who is knowledgeable on copyright matters and upon getting her decision, would decide whether the card should be mailed.

Levison mentioned to Kanter that he had recently conferred with Jessie Jackson and had learned that Jackson was getting some good results from Negro businessmen in Chicago, Illinois, on pledges of $500 and $1,000 a year. Jackson mentioned to Levison that he urgently needed some sort of plaque he could give these businessmen in return for their gifts. Levison instructed Kanter to call some companies who make such plaques and find out about having them make some for the SCLC.

On November 30, 1966, Stanley Levison and Michael Miller of the Ford Foundation were in contact. Levison said he had learned that Martin Luther King's appearance before the group had been changed to December 15, 1966. King, according to Levison, will be the only speaker that day.

The same confidential source advised on November 23, 1966, that Levison and Michael Miller of the Ford Foundation conferred on that date, and among the things considered was Martin Luther King's scheduled appearance before a hearing in Washington, D.C. (apparently concerning some report the White House has sent to Congress). Levison said he hoped the appearance of King could be put off until after December 15, 1966.

Communist Infiltration of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) Internal Security-C

Miller mentioned that he was planning to bring together a group of people next Tuesday (December 6, 1966) to discuss matters concerning urban problems. Levison, after being told of Miller's plans, said he would like to bring Dick Russell with him. Levison described Russell as a person who has done some very interesting work in Hartford, Connecticut, and a very close friend of the SCLC. He said he thought Russell could contribute something to the meeting. Miller was very receptive to Russell's presence at the meeting.

On November 30, 1966, Levison and Dick Russell were in conversation about Martin Luther King's appearance before the Ribicoff hearing (Senator Abraham Ribicoff's hearing devoted to urban problems) on Thursday (December 15, 1966). Levison said in view of King's scheduled appearance, Michael Miller was having a few people together next Tuesday (December 6, 1966) to discuss and prepare a few things for King. Russell said he would be pleased to attend the meeting.

In discussing another matter, Russell was told by Levison that the work on the "Freedom Brands" trade mark was progressing nicely. Levison said it would be pushed through the distributors with a royalty for the SCLC.

Levison and Martin Luther King (President of the SCLC) were in contact on November 30, 1966. Levison told King that he had completed the paper on the guaranteed annual wage and wanted to know where he should send it. King said he should send it to Chauncy (Chauncy Eskridge, Chicago Attorney).

King told Levison that after next week (December 4-10, 1966) he wanted to spend the following three weeks working on the book he is writing. He asked Levison whether he should try to get an advance from Harper. Levison told him that he saw no harm in trying to do so, but suggested he contact Harper before he goes to some other source. (believed to be alluding to Harper and Row, the publisher.

In discussing their plans for Christmas, King said he wanted to spend one week in California, one week in Miami and Christmas in Atlanta, Georgia. In January, 1967, King will go Miami or Bimini for a few days to work on his new book.

Communist Infiltration of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) Internal Security-C

Levison mentioned an article which appears in the current issue of McCalls Magazine, and said Joan Daves (publishers representative) was very upset because she was not contacted beforehand. In describing the article, Levison said it had to do with the SCLC and King. King said the article was actually writter by Junious Griffin (Public Relations Director of the SCLC) and that $500.00 was received by the SCLC for the article.

Levison told King that Michael Miller of the Ford Foundation was getting a group together next week to work on a paper for him (king), and Dick Russell will assist them. King expressed great pleasure in the fact that Russell is now assisting the SCLC.

One other matter discussed by King and Levison was the possibility that Wyatt Walker (former Executive Director of the SCLC) might return to the SCLC. Levison pointed out that Walker's position as President of the Educational Heritage Company was terminated a short time ago and that he is now Chairman of the company. Levison said Walker could not live on the salary he receives as Chairman, therefore was considering returning to the SCLC. King acknowledged that Walker had made mention of the fact that he would consider returning to the SCLC, and that he (King) was considering placing Walker in charge of the Chicago operations of the SCLC. Levison expressed disappointment in hearing this, pointing out that he did not think Walker could fill the bill in view of his shortcomings.

Before concluding their discussion, Levison asked King if the SCLC had received anywmpaey from the Swedish people. King said he recently received/from Sweden that they have $25,000 which they will send in December.

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum of November 28, 1966, under the above captions. Additionally, reference is made to Chicago memorandum of November 21, 1966, captioned Southern: Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), Racial Matters.

The later referenced communication made mention of SCLC plans to mount a two months Voter's Registration Campaign in Chicago, commencing in early December, 1966.

In this connection the December 2, 1966, edition of both the "Chicago Sun-Times", and the "Chicago Daily News", contained articles directed to such activity. These articles reflected that Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., President, SCLC, had held a press conference on December 2, 1966, at the Liberty Baptist Church, 4900 South Parkway, Chicago. During this press conference KING had advised of SCLC plans to sponsor an intensified voter's registration Crive, centered in Negro communities here and to be headed by Hosea Williams, SCLC's Director of Voter Registration and Political Education. King stated that during this campaign, civil rights organizations which will be involved, through the CFM, will not endorse candidates for public office in the Spring, 1966, Aldermanic and Mayoral Elections to be held in Chicago. He "hinted" however, that this voter's registration campaign may be aimed at the Democratic Party political organization. King stated that a key part of the voter's registration drive will be efforts to get the local Board of Election Commissioners to open neighborhood voter registration centers in both daytime and nighttime hours. He stated also that Williams will have a staff of 15 or so persons working fulltime with him in connection with this campaign. King did not name any of these individuals during his press conference.

Chicago FBT Office on December2, 1966, that the EAC-CFM are scheduled to hold a picketing demonstration in the area of 63rd and Halsted Streets onDecember 3, 1966.
The demonstration here is to include picketing before the Chicago City Bank and Trust Company, 815 West 63rd Street. Martin Luther King, Jr. is reportedly to participate in this demonstration and will lead a delegation of local Englewood ministers to the bank December 3, 1966, to remove funds available to them for subsequent redeposit in the Seaway National Bank of Chicago, 645 East 87th Street, Chicago.

Lumbered approximately 100 persons. King participated in the demonstration, with some ten to 15 local clergyment. At 11:30 AM, King entered the Bank with several of these clergymen who proceeded to withdraw funds available to them from the bank. It was noted that none of these withdrawals totaled over $1,000 since a special window set up to handle sums of that amount and over was not used. It was also his understanding that some of the accounts which were closed by these clergymen had only recently been opened in an effort to "beef up" the demonstration. In bonfire which had been proposed for the burning of closed account books amounted to the burning of one pass book. It is stated that this group of demonstrators dispersed shortly after 12 noon with no incidents, disturbance, arrests having taken place.

the Chicago FBI Office that on this date some 30 demonstrators picketed before Wieboldt's Department Store, 63rd and South Green Streets, in the Englewood area. from 3:00 to 5:00 PM. The demonstration was without incident or arrests. The demonstrators distributed leaflets urging the recipient against banking at the Chicago City Bank and Trust Company. advised that the demonstration of this date and that of December 3, 1966. was in protest of an urban renewal program developed for the Englewood area which would necessitate the razing of Negro housing for the expansion of shopping facilities for the 63rd and Halsted Streets shopping area. The Chicago City Lank and Trust Company has been singled out as a target by the EAC and CFM forces as the bank president allegedly has been a prime mover in the development of this urban renewal program.

DEMONSTRATION, CHICAGO FREEDOM "OVEMENT (CFM) - SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN EADERSHIP CONVERENCE (SCLC) CHICAGO ILLINOIS FACIAL MATTERS

Reference is made to Chicago memorandum of November 28, 1966, under the above caption and that of "Proposed Demonstration by Englewood Action Committee (EAC), Englewood area, Chicago, Illinois, Racial Matters."

Referenced memorandum set forth information which in part concerned controversy connected with the comment made somewher 25, 1966, in Chicago, by Alderman Thomas E. Keane, leaderatic Party Leader in the Chicago City Council, to the effect that there was no "summit agreement", between the City aministration and any other party, civil rights groups, or classed on the issue of open housing. Subsequently representatives of local civil rights groups, as well as Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., President, SCLC, in Atlanta, Georgia, had called for an explanation from Chicago's Mayor Richard J. Daley concerning this remark as a possible reflection of the City Administration's bad faith with those forces which had hegotiated an end to open-housing marches in Chicago during the past summer.

Subsequently, on November 29, 1966, Chicago's Layor Daley held a press conference during which he was extensively questioned concerning this matter. Mayor Daley stated in reference to the so-called "summit agreement", "you can call it an agreement, you can call it an objective, you can call it a program. It is a gentleman's agreement under a moral banner." Daley stated that what Alderman Keane had intonded to say was that there was a meeting of minds in the city by many people, including representatives of business, industry, labor, city, county, and all right thinking people on the open housing issue, but that the city had not literally signed a pact with anyone in this connection. The essence of the agreement which had ended the open housing marches, however, was accribed by Daley as the policy of the City Administration and he stressed his intention of abiding by the agroement, noting that all city agencies which had played a role in the agreement would make every effort to fulfill their obligations.

The information concerning the November 29, 1966, statements of Mayor Daley are set forth, as above, in the November 30, 1966, editions of the "Chicago Daily News" and the "Chicago Sun-Timos," both daily Chicago newspapers.

In connection with the CFM, the Hovember 26, 1966 edition of the "Chicago Sun Times", a daily Chicago newspaper, contained information to the effect that Alderman Thomas E. Keane, the Democratic party leader in the Chicago City Council and chairman of the Council Finance Committee, had stated that no "summit agreement" on fair housing existed in Chicago. As a result of this comment made during a meeting of the Finance Committee, a spokesman for the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations (CCCO) had taken exception, indicating that this remark on the part of Keane represented at the very least a sign of bad faith on the part of the city administration with the civil rights groups, religious and civic groups who had concluded an agreement in August, 1966 which resulted in the cessation of open-housing marches in Chicago. The spokesman, who declined to be identified, what quoted as having stated "Short of having some sort of pact signed in blood, I don't see how Alderman Keane can say there is no sound! agreement. It was made clear to the entire ration that several city agencies voted in public sessions to carry but their specific aspects of the open-housing agreement. This was done in the presence of church, business and civic to date which likewise committed themselves to specific respectable to the field of open housing."

This article also car in a contaction that Dr. ? ? Martin Luther; King, Jr. in At. 2: 4. 19 7712 ned taken exception to these recent comments of K- and A. O. In addition, King was quoted as saying that Negro And the Chicago had recently won unprecedented concessions that the greecery chain that would result in "dramatic reserve to reward economic freedom," King had stated that under the tive provided by "Operation Breadbasket," an SCLC operation - r. v:de more jobs for Negroes, High-Low Foods, Inc. at . . . l into an agreement whereby one hundred eighty-thr @ The comman Negroes would be hired in their fourteen store. to to areas in Chicago. High-Low, in meetings with "O; 3 adbasket" officials, had also agreed to integrate the second confices and had made other concessions including the process of goods produced by Negro manufactures a sea the transfer of their accounts to Negro financed in . imitions.

Again in connection with the memarks attributed to Alderman Keane, above, an a trake appeared in the .

November 27, 1966 edition of the "Chango Tribune," a daily Chicago newspaper. This article row grand that Dr. King, . identified as president of the SCLO, in Atlanta had called for an explanation of Keane's derival of the existence of a Summit type agreement on fair bousing practices in Chicago. He had stated, "...because Mr. Heane so often feels disposed to speak for the entire city government, I think that Mayor (Richard J.) Daley himself should clarify his own position. After all the Mayor praised the open housing agreement when it was reached last August 26." Dr. King stated he hoped it did not mean the city administration intended to break faith with all those who participated for reaching this agreement.

King continued "Hundreds of themsends of Chicago citizens live in slums today againing the severities of winter. Last summer they were given the hope that their hardship had come to an end, that the slume could be eliminated, and that decent homes would be made available to all families in all neighborhoods. Any attempt to destroy that hope is an act of cruelty and a betrayal of trust. The people will not stand for it."

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 23, 1966, that Stanley Levison and Michael Miller of the Ford Foundation were in contact on that date. Levison related that he recently conferred with Martin Luther King (President of the SCLC) about several proposals Miller made concerning new projects he would like to see initiated, and learned that King was very much in favor of them. Levison said King was especially interested in the one relating to urban affairs, and the one relating to the "President's report". In fact, according to Levison, King plans to go to Washington, D.C., to testify during hearings that will be held to consider his report (apparently alluding to some report the White House has sent to Congress or to some other Government agency). King, Levison commented has been given the alternative of appearing on December 1, 1966, or December 9, 1966. Levison said, however, that since the hearings will last for three weeks, he wanted King to appear after December 15, 1966. Miller said he thought it would be much better if King could appear later in the hearings because it would give them (Miller and others) more time to prepare a report for King to present. Miller said he would commence work on the report immediately.

Levison said he also learned from King that he (King) is writing another book and that it would include some of the items Miller proposed. Miller was highly elated and wanted to know if there were our ritems he should recommend for inclusion in King's book. Levison said there were other matters he would like to discuss with Miller, and therefore would try to meet with Miller at a later time.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 11, 1966, that Clarence Jones and Stanley Levison were in contact on that date. Their contact, according to the source, was to give Jones the opportunity to fill Levison in on what took place during his (Jones') two day (November 9, 10, 1966) meeting with the Teamsters (International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs and Warehousemen of America). The following is, in substance, what took place, according to Jones:

Clarence Jones; Martin Luther King, President of the SCLC; James Hoffa, President of the Teamsters; Gibbons (Marold Gibbons, assistant to Hoffa) met (on November 10, 1966) to discuss problems of the SCLC, particularly those concerning the Chicago operations of the SCLC. Jones said they (the SCLC and the Teamsters) agreed to cooperate on matters Concerning the SCLC.

In elaborating on what type of support and cooperation the SCLC will receive from the Teamsters, Jones said financial support was promised after Gibbons (Harold Gibbons) pointed out that it was much easier for the Teamsters to sustain the SCLC on a continuing basis than to make an outright contribution. Cibbons said it was nothing for the Teamsters to furnish $50,000.00 on a periodic basis in a cooperative program with $\mathcal{U}$ the SCLC.

Jones, in describing Hoffa's attitude during the meeting, said he (Hoffa) took a very statesmanlike attitude toward the jurisdictional dispute in Chicago (a dispute between two labor organizations trying to organize hospital workers in that city). In fact, Hoffa promised to enter into the dispute on a cooperative basis and agreed that "however the jurisdiction falls on the nature of the work, that's the way they (Teamsters) will take it, even if they (Teamsters) only get fifteen to twenty per cent of the workers".

Levison inquired of Jones what impression Hoffa made on king. Jones answered that he (Jones) did not get a chance to find out as "they" went their own way when the meeting broke. However, in Jones' mind, he (Jones) has never met anyone as tough as Hoffa.

Jones mentioned that Hoffa desires to have an association with the civil rights movement where they (the Teamsters) are involved in organizing workers as he feels there is no trade union movement in this country. In fact, Hoffa said the Teamsters were out of the American Federation of Labor - Congress of Industrial Organizations (AFL - CIO) "not because they (Teamsters) are bandits, but because they (Teamsters) refuse to ride around in Cadillacs as part of the labor aristocracy".

According to Jones, during the meeting, a committee was organized whose purpose will be to handle matters of mutual concern which might arise between the Teamsters and the SCLC. Hoffa designated Gibbons (Narold Gibbons) to chair the committee.

Before Jones and Levison ended their contact, they agreed to meet on Sunday, Hovember 13, 1966, so that Jones could brief Levison in great detail as to what transpired during the meeting between King and Hoffa. At Jones' request, Levison agreed to meet at Jones' house.

the requirement of the FBI for a bodyguard for KING is a complete fabrication.

University of Pittsburgh, was advised that the FBI does not provide protection for any individual nor do we advise anyone of the protective measures that should be taken concerning the safety of anyone and that this certainly applied to Dr. KING's visit to the University.

Pursuant to Bureau instructions, SAC, Atlanta, called on KING 11/21/66. Efforts to make an earlier appointment with him had been unsuccessful since KING has been in a travel status during the past two weeks. KING was advised that the Bureau was concerned about the above-described invoice since it indicated that the FBI required that he have a bodyguard. He was informed that as he knew the Bureau would not undertake the affording of protection to individuals nor would we recommend or require that he or anyone else have a bodyguard.

KING said he had been unaware that the Adult Education Council had submitted this or any other invoice in connection with his services for expenses for a bodyguard. He said he had no bodyguard and required the payment of expenses for no such person. He stated he was very much concerned about the invoice because it requested payment of the expenses for a bodyguard which he does not have and he was extremely anxious to clear this matter up and to prevent the sending of such invoices. KING said he was not aware that any such expense money had been requested by the Council and that all invoices for his appearances at colleges and universities are handled by the Council in Chicago and not by SCLC in Atlanta.

KING was apologetic and expressed appreciation to the Bureau for calling this misstatement to his attention. He said he would contact the Council directly to make certain that such invoices are not sent claiming expenses for a non-existent bodyguard.

AT 100-5586

KING said that arrangements regarding his speaking appearances for the Council are handled by Adult Education Council of Greater Chicago, 332 South Michigan Avenue, telephone HA 7-2670.

A copy of instant invoice which was furnished to Atlanta with Pittsburgh airtel 11/7/66, is forwarded for the information of Chicago. Chicago will observe that this is a Xerox copy made from a copy and that some printing on the righthand edge of this form was not reproduced on the copy received from Pittsburgh. All the pertinent information appears to be contained on this copy, but it is noted that the invoice number (number 130) may not be complete.

Inasmuch as KING is not aware of the extent to which the Council may have billed other colleges and universities for bodyguard expenses and since such bills have been sent by the Council in Chicago, the Bureau may wish to direct Chicago to contact to identify others to whom such invoices have been sent.

Chicago should await Bureau instructions before proceeding in this matter.

King had stated that this country has shown its back-lash tendencies by passing civil rights bills that are not enforced, making policemen their own judges by failing to create civilian review boards and giving Negroes "freedom and famine" at the same time. He stated that the civil rights movement must go on with new detarmination until all Negroes are free.

King additionally urged support for a hopcott currently being carried on in the Englewood area under the auspices of the EAC and the GEM. Audiness establishments who are in favor of the Trban Renewal Program in this area are being boyoctted by these civil rights groups who are charging the predominantly Negro neighborhoods would be destroyed to make from for additional shopping facilities in the vicinity of the 62rd and Falsic Ashopping area.

King Woos Hoffa $$ For Rights Campaign

Washington, Nov. 7 (Special)-The Rev. Martin Luther King is making overtures to Teamsters Union chief Jimmy Hoffa in hopes that Hoffa will pump some of the huge union's ample funds into the faltering civil rights movement, THE NEWS learned tonight. The two men are to talk the matter over at luncheon hundreds of thousands of dollars Wednesday in Hoffa's palatial quarters in the Teamster building here at the foot of Capitol Hill.

The meeting was arranged at King's request. It was supposed to be secret. Late today Hoffa's aids were still insisting they knew nothing about it. King could not be reached for commenet. But THE NEWS verified the luncheon plan.

Reasons Outlined

Hoffa was expected to give King a very friendly hearing for these reasons:

1. There are 450,000 Negroes in the 1.7 million member Teamsters Union.

2. Hoffa prides himself on his own long pro-civil rights record, including personal friendship with ex-heavyweight champ Joe

8. Appealing two federal jail sentences totalling 13 years, Hoffa obviously could use a lot of new friends right now.

4 An agreement between King and Hoffa might make it easier for the teamsters to sign up new Negro members in many industries

As for King's reasons, it is known that contributions from white liberals to civil rights groups, including his own Southern Christian Leadership Conference, have dwindled to a trickle, due to the furore in recent months over "black power."

King has repeatedly disavowed violence and a go-it-alone policy for Negroes. But he has refused to repudiate the most vocal ad-vocates of "black power," Stokely Carmichael, head of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, and Floyd McKissick, chairman of the Congress of Racial Equality.

March on Washington

Until the eruption over "black power," unions, churches and wealthy white liberals provided most of the money for the civil rights drive, including the famous March on Washington, in 1963.

Walter Reuther, whose United Auto Workers union has poured

Martin Luther King Contributions dwindle

Jimmy Hoffa Luncheon is arranged into the movement, was recently denied renomination to the board of directors of the NAACP. A hattle to reverse the action is now under way in local chapters around the country.

The fellowing information has been supplied by confidential sources of this Bureau who have furnished U. reliable information in the past.

On Hovember 3, 1966, Martin Luther King, Jr., President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, was in contact with Clarence Jenes, one of his principal advisors. Jones advised he had arranged a meeting between King and James Boffs, President, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Varehousemen and Helpers Union, to be held on November 9, 1966. This would be a luncheon meeting in Heffa's effice in Vashington, D. C. Jones stated that Hoffa would have his advisers present and that arrangements have been made for Joses to attend in an advisory capacity. It is possible that another of King's advisors, Stanley Levison, sould attend. It was agreed that King, Jones, and Levison would meet in Washington, D. C., on November 9, 1966, prior to meeting with Hoffs, to discuss strategy.

Stanley Levison is a long-time communist whose membership in the Communist Party, USA, has been established as of July, 1963.

Attached for your approval for dissemination are copies of a letterhead memorandum containing the following information:

advised on 11/3/66 that Martin Luther King, Jr., President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and Clarence Jones, now principal adviser to King, were in contact. Jones advised he had arranged a meeting between King and James Hoffa, President, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Warehousemen and Helpers Union to be held 11/9/66 at Hoffa's office in Washington, D.C. According to Jones, Hoffa would have his advisers present and arrangements have been made for Jones to attend the meeting in an advisory capacity. There also is a possibility that another of King's advisers and long-Itime communist, Stanley Levison, could attend.

It was agreed that King, Levison, and Jones should meet in Washington, D. C., on 11/9/66 prior to the meeting with Hoffa to discuss strategy.

Information has also come to our attention indicating that King will arrive in Washington, D.C.. at 11:20 a.m., on 11/9/66 and is scheduled to speak at Howard University between 8 and 10 p.m.

STREET!

OBSERVATIONS: From the above, it is apparent that King is in dire need of funds. Secondly, he dislikes going to Hoffa because of Hoffa's unsavory reputation. King undoubtedly feels that this association might reflect unfavorably upon his public image. On the other hand, it would appear Hoffa might be concerned with the white backlash within his own union ranks should it become known that union funds may be expended to promote Negro objectives. It is therefore felt that both men have just reason for keeping this meeting secret. Any publicity concerning it would probably be extremely embarrassing to both parties.

It would appear that the meeting may be virtually spontaneous and time in this instance could be very critical.

RECOMMENDATION: A Bureau official be designated now to alert friendly news media of the meeting once the meeting date is learned so that arrangements can be made for appropriate press coverage of the planned meeting to expose and disrupt it.

ADDENDUM: DOMESTIC INTELLIGENCE DIVISION, 11/3/66, FJB: deh

Special Agent in Charge Donald E. Roney of the New York Office called at 3 p.m., this date. He said that through a reliable source they had learned that Clarence Jones had contacted King today. He told King that arrangements have been made for King to meet with Hoffa in Hoffa's office in Washington, D.C., for a luncheon meeting on November 9, 1966. King agreed and they then discussed the possibility of having Stanley Levison, a long-time communist and now a principal adviser to King, attend the meeting. They thought this was a good idea and would try to work it out.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

After studying your book "Masters of Deciet" and other articles I feel very strongly that Martin Luther King is a communist and I would like your opinion or some literature that would help confirm or deny this point. I personally feel he is misleading many decent and noble people but they argue that I am making false accusations and he is a man who has nothing to gain for his hard work. Many are priests & nuns who feel this way. My deepest appreciation for any help you can give.

SECURITY MATTER - C To obtain authorization for the attached as PURPOSE: concerning Martin Luther King, Jr.'s contacts with James R. Hoffa to be given to a friendly newspaper contact for 6(2)67(1) publication. BACKGROUND: As you have been advised, Clarence Jones, a former member of the Labor Youth League, a communist-front orgaization, and now a principal advisor to Martin Luther King, Jr., President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, was in contact with Paul O'Dwyer, New York City attorney and brother of former New York City Mayor William O'Dwyer. Jones wanted O'Dwyer to arrange a meeting between King and James Hoffa, President, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Warehousemen and Helpers Union. Jones advised that King is very sensitive regarding this meeting and does not want any publicity concerning it. If a meeting could be arranged, King, accompanied by Jones, would be willing to meet Hoffa at Hoffa's convenience. O'Dwyer promised to help arrange this meeting. Hoffa's previous record of freewheeling with union funds would indicate a reluctance on his part to pour union funds into the civil rights movement; a move which would accrue no direct benefit to him individually. This appears borne out by his indicated reluctance to meet with King and thereby be confronted with King's version of his (Hoffa's) responsibility to aid the 450,000 Negro members of Hoffa's union by contributing financial and moral support. Disclosure of King's transparent attempt to blackmail Hoffa with the large Negro membership of Hoffa's union, to solve the Southern Christian Leadership Conference's financial problems, would cause an uproar among leaders of organizations having large Negro memberships; pointing out their own vulnerability to such a squeeze by any unscrupulous civil rights leader. This potential collusion between large labor unions and the civil rights movement could also react to the detriment of the Negro in that through large financial donations, an unscrupulous labor leader could subvert the legitimate aims and objectives of the civil rights movement to his own purposes. 100-106670

Public disclosure of King's intentions in this instance appears timely, in that it points out Hoffa's susceptibility to King's plot and the intention of King to virtually engage in extortion to obtain needed funds. Disclosure would be mutually embarrassing to both men and probably cause King's quest for badly needed funds to fail in this instance.

RECOMMENDATION:

DOUBLE JEOPARDY

Both Vashington and New York are bussing with rumors that a prominent union leader is the target for a squeeze play by an equally prominent civil rights leader. The union boss has made his reputation on the basis of his ability to apply pressure and it may be a unique experience for him to find himself on the receiving end. The civil rights leader is looking in all directions for support, financial and otherwise, and is conscious of the fact that the union headed by the labor leader has nearly a half-million Negroes in it. He is banking on the fact that the fear of large-scale dissension within union ranks by the Megro members will force the union leader to acquiesce to his demands for financial support. Mowever, the union boss reportedly has several aces up his sleeve and is reportedly about to apply a squeeze play of his own on the civil rights leader. It will be interesting to see who really gets squeezed when these two pythons get together,

The following information has been supplied by confidential sources of this Bureau who have furnished reliable information in the past. N4 teletype to Buren 11/11/66.

On November 11, 1966, Clarence Jones and Stanley Levison, both advisors of Martin Luther King, Jr., President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, were in conference. Jones informed Levison that King met with James Hoffa. President, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Warehousemen and Helpers Union, on Movember 10, 1966, in Vashington, D. C. During this meeting, it was decided that the Teamsters Union would support King and his organization. Moffa agreed to give King $50,000 periodically. In return, J) King yould support Hoffs when Hoffs enters the labor dispute between two labor organisations trying to organize hospital workers in Chicago, Illinois. Hoffa indicated he would do this even though his Union may only get fifteen to twenty per cent of the hospital workers as Union members.

Jones advised that during the meeting a committee was formed to handle matters of mutual concern which arise between the Teamsters Union and King's organization. Boffa F appointed one of his aides to be the chairman of this committee.

According to Jones, Hoffa wants to have an association with the civil rights movement.

Stanley Levison is a long-time communist whose membership is the Communist Party, USA, has been established to it as of July, 1963.

advised on 11/11/66 that Clarence Jones, a former member of the Labor Youth League, a communist-front organization, and Stanley Levison, a long-time communist, were in conference. Both of these men are advisers to Martin Luther King, Jr., President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference. During this conference, Jones advised that King met James Hoffa, President, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Warehousemen and Helpers Union, on 11/10/66 in Washington, D. C. Hoffa agreed to support King's organization by giving it $50,000 periodically. In return, King would support Hoffa when Hoffa enters the labor dispute between two labor organizations trying to organize hospital workers in Chicago, Illinois. Hoffa indicated he would do this even though his Union may only get fifteen to twenty per cent of the hospital workers as Union members.

According to Jones, Hoffa wants to have an association with the civil rights movement.

Jones further advised that during the meeting a committee was organized to handle matters of mutual concern between the Teamsters Union and King's group. appointed one of his aides as the chairman of this committee.

OBSERVATIONS:

120-106670-277

At the proper time, we will consider appropriate counterintelligence action to further expose this liaison between King and Hoffa. However, at the moment, no action of this kind will be taken because we should not risk jeopardizing the delicate source from which this information was obtained.

Communist Infiltration of the Southern Chilstian Leadership Conference, SCLC Internal Security - C

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 3, 1966, that Clarence Jones and Martin Luther King, President of the SCLC, were in contact on that. The following is what they discussed:

Jones asked King if he had decided when the conference would be held (obviously a conference of the SCLC). King said the had decided that it should be held subsequent to the elections on Tuesday (November 8, 1966), so therefore, had scheduled it for Sunday, November 13th through the 16th, 1966.

King then referred to a recent conversation he had with Anne Farnsworth, and said he had received a promise from her to make a contribution in stocks to the SCLC. He said he did not know how much the contribution would amount to, but was of the opinion that it would be a considerable one.

Another recent contribution according to the source, dame from Dick Russell, who gave King $5,000.00. Jones acknowledged that he had heard about Russell's contribution (apparently from Stanley Levison) as he had discussed Russell's willingness to Right up a business for the benefit of the SCLC with Stanley Levison. And as a consequence of Russell's offer, Levison will meet with the planes next week to discuss the offer.

Re: Communist Infiltration of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, SCLC

The same source advised on November 3, 1965, that Jones and Stanley Levison were in conversation on that date regarding SCLC matters. The first matter considered was the luncheon appointment on November 9, 1966, between Martin Luther King and James Hoffa, (President of the Brotherhood of Teamsters). Jones related that he had been successful in arranging the meeting for noon on that date and that it would take place in Hoffa's office in Washington, D.C.

Jones told Levison of his recent contact with King during which time they discussed the matterof Jessie Jackson (Head of the SCLC's operation bread basket in Chicago, Illinois) and how his salary would be paid. Jones said the difficulty over his salary was a question of which organization should actually pay him. Levison suggested he meet with Jones over the weekend to discuss this matter as well as other SCLC business. This suggestion was agreed to by Jones, but no date was set.

Finally the source said, Levison and Jones talked about the Staff Conference of the SCLC which is scheduled to be held on Sunday, November 13th - 16th, 1966. Both men agreed that in view of SCLC's financial difficulties, they did not think it wise to hold such a meeting at this time. In fact, Levison said the SCLC's decision to have so many people attend the meeting and to pay their travel expenses (apparently to Atlanta, Georgia) was untenable. Levison said he had reservations about attending and was considering making a siggestion to postpone it until the SCLC could pay off some of its obligations. He said if it did not start to' pay some of its creditors, he expected law suits at any time.

SUBJECT: MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. SECURITY MATTER - C PROPOSED MEETING WITH JAMES R. HOFFA, 11/9/66

It was previously recommended and approved that Crime Records alert friendly news media regarding a proposed meeting between King and Hoffa 11/9/66.

Through a reliable source we learned late last night that in view of publicity in the New York Daily News regarding this proposed meeting, King and his aides had decided that it would be unwise to meet with Hoffa. It was further ascertained that King was still due to arrive in Washington at 11:30 AM this morning, it being noted that he had a speech scheduled at Howard University this evening.

We alerted regarding King's arrival time in Washington. The reporters cornered King as he came off the plane and quizzed him about the meeting with Hoffa. King at. first told the reporters that the meeting had been cancelled and he seemed to be flustered at the reporters' appearance. He then ducked into a mens' room at the airport with his aides and upon emerging told the reporters that there had been discussion regarding his meeting Hoffa but that he had no further comment at this time, and he had decided to hold a press conference later on this afternoon at the Statler Hotel. King then left the airport with Clarence Jones who had come down earlier from New York, and with an attorney with Jones by the name of Philip Sipser, who identified himself as a labor lawyer.

advised at 3:15 PM this afternoon that he had finally gotten through to King's party at the Statler and had talked to King's aide Reverend Andrew Young. Young at this time informed that the meeting between King and Hoffa was off and he claimed that me meeting had been cancelled last night.

Proposed Meeting with James R. Hoffa 11/9/66

pressed him for details and Young said that the proposed purpose of this meeting had been "misinterpreted." He said King had wanted to have an off-the-record discussion with Hoffa regarding the problems of the Negroes in the Teamsters and Young claimed that King's outfit had worked closely with the Teamsters in Atlanta and Chicago and they felt it was time for them to meet the Teamster head. Young said it was difficult for King to have a private conversation with anyone in view of his prominence and reiterated that the whole matter had been "misinterpreted and distorted."

To press Young and Young finally acknowledged that King might try to have a meeting with Hoffa at some other time.

advises that The News will carry a picture tomorrow of King arriving in town, together with the information set out above.

The Star is also going to report this meeting.

It is felt that our counterintelligence aim to thwart King in receiving money from the Teamsters has been quite successful to date.

The above is for your information, and certainly highlights the excellent results which have been achieved through close cooperation between the Domestic Intelligence Division and Crime Records. We have just received a copy of the late edition of today's Star which carries the story by Ronald Sarro, captioned "King Denies Going to Hoffa for Funds."

King Denies Going to Hoffa for

of the civil rights movement

The civil rights leader, arriving at National Airport for a number of Washington engages! ment: appeared indecisive early this afternoon as to whether he would keep the appointment with Hoffa later in the day.

As he stepped from a jet bringing him from Atlanta, King was asked by a reporter about the meeting, and he indicated it was off. "The impression was falsely given that I was going to Mr. Holla for thurds," King said.

But King did not explain the purpose of the meeting, reportedly arranged at his remest.

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania November 4, 1966

Reference is made to memorandum captioned as above and dated October 31, 1966, at Pittsburgh, Pa.

On November 3 1066

advised that Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Visited that campus from approximately 12:00 noon, until approximately 4:00 PM, November 2, 1966. He said King spoke for about fifty minutes starting at 12:00 noon in the Student Union Ballroom. Stated that King traced the history of the Negro in the United States since he first arrived. King also stated that he is opposed to riots and other forms of violent demonstrations but is in favor of peaceful demonstrations to emphasize the Negroes' problems.

further advised that King was driven from the Pittsburgh Airport to the University of Pittsburgh and back to the airport in the University's chauffeured limousine. He said King was officially met at the airport by University of Pittsburgh, said there were no significant problems connected with king's visit.

On November 3, 1966, advised that he met Dr. King at the Pittsburgh Airport and accompanied him during his entire visit in Pittsburgh. He said he experienced no major problems during the visit. He stated that one incident happened at the airport while waiting for King's arrival which caused him a little concern. He said an unidentified Negro man came to him, shook his hand and told him "they" wanted a Negro student from the University in the official University car on the trip from the airport to the University. Said he told the individual he would not ask a member of the official greeting party to leave the limousine in order to make room for a Negro student. He said the problem was resolved when Charles Harris of the United Negro Protest Committee, a local Negro organization, volunteered to take another car to the University, making room for the student. Stated that he did not know how the student was chosen nor who made the choice, but Earl Trent, Chairman of the Hill Education Project, a volunteer program for students to tutor Hill District (a predominantly Negro section of Pittsburgh) children, was chosen to ride in the official car from the airport to the University.

also advised that on the return trip to the airport, Matthew Moore of the Pittsburgh National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, rode in the limousine and was overheard inviting King to return to Pittsburgh for three days in August, 1967, during a week which was to be designated "Freedom Week" by the Mayor of Pittsburgh. said it was his impression King plans to accept the invitation.

advised that King was scheduled to speak at Marietta, Ohio, on the evening of November 2, 1966, and was to fly from Pittsburgh, Pa., to Parkersburg, W. Va., in order to keep the appointment; however, when arriving at the Pittsburgh Airport, they were advised that the flight could not land at Parkersburg due to weather conditions. King's appointment at Marietta was cancelled and arrangements were made for him and his associate, Bernard Lee, who accompanied King on his visit to Pittsburgh, to fly to Chicago.

Said they departed Pittsburgh about 6:25 PM.

It is noted sources have furnished information on Nation of Islam activities in the Norfolk area; and in the past, Nation of Islam (NOI) affiliates have made disparaging remarks concerning Doctor KING and his adherents.

Sources reported the local Norfolk NOI Mosque treated Doctor KING's appearance with disdain, and no attempts were made by the local Mosque to interfere in any way with Doctor KING's appearance in the city.

RE: SCHEDULED APPEARANCE OF DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING

SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP

CONFERENCE

NCRFOLK, VIRGINIA OCTOBER 30, 1966

Reference is made to memorandum dated October 12, 1966, at Norfolk, Virginia.

advised Dr. Martin Lother Ang arrived at Norfolk at approximately 10:30 a.m. on October 30, 1966, and departed four hours later without incident. advised that the crowds that turned out to see and hear Dr. King, as guest speaker in connection with the installation of Dr. Milton A. Reid, Minister, New Calvary Baptist Church, Norfolk, and State and Regional Director of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), were large but orderly and no unusual incidents were reported.

On October 31, 1966, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that there were approximately 2,000 persons in attendance on October 30, 1966, at the New Calvary Baptist Church, Norfolk. The source advised that Dr. Martin Luther King, Atlanta, Georgia, delivered an address prior to the installation of Dr. Reid as the Minister of the church. Dr. King was accompanied by Reverend C. W. Marris and Mr. Bernard Lee. Reverend Harris is President of the Virginia State Unit of the SCLC, Hopewell, Virginia.

INCLUSED !!!!!!

RE: SCHEDULED APPEARANCE OF DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING. ETC.

During the lecture, Dr. King made comments substantially as follows:

'Masses of Negroes are perishing in poverty.
During the past four years in the state of Mississippi, 62 Negroes and civil rights workers were murdered and no one was prosecuted. Churches have been burned because people wanted to be free. The saying now is, 'Don't attend the church of your choice but burn the church of your choice.'
Down in Alabama Wallace seeks to defy the law of the land.
In Georgia they elect a sick man (Maddox) for democratic leadership. In the state of Virginia there are Negroes in semi-slavery. This is all the doing of the party in power in Virginia. This must be changed.

"This nation was founded on the principle that all men are created equal yet people are arguing to see if the color of a man's skin can determine his character.

"In Chicago I saw pure hate on peoples' faces. They wanted to kill us. They hate the Negro because they fear him. Violence is not the answer. White and black are tied together in a single garment of destiny. Each black man is a little white and each white man is a little black. Love is the glue that binds us together. Out of one blood God made all men. I'm not going to hate anyone. Hate distorts a person's values. Good men are transformed into evil men by hate. I've seen it on the faces of the Klan and the white citizens' councils and it is a burden.

"It is midnight in our world today. The darkness is so deep we hardly know what way to turn. Nations are engaged in a contest for world supremacy. Viet Nam reminds us that the clouds of war are close at hand. Our nation, through its refusal to work out a plan to end the war in Viet Nam, is bringing about World War III.

'Don't worry about the race problem because morning will surely come. The racists will not stop it. God has not as yet turned the world over to them."

RE: SCHEDULED APPEARANCE OF DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, ETC.

At a news conference following this lecture, Dr. King was reported to have said that the white backlash is surfacing and that latent hostilities are coming out in the open now. He said it was easy enough to go along with equal voting rights and public accommodations because these are not on a personal level. Now we are dealing with the hard issues—the basic class issues—and which are the most difficult yet.

Dr. King said Negroes are actually in worse condition than they were 25 years ago and one of the problems in the Negro community is getting Negroes to see that their condition is getting worse instead of better. Dr. King said the Negro unemployment rate is higher than ever and the economic plight is worse than ever. He stated the black power movement advocated by Stokeley/Carmichael of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee was just part of a healthy debate within the Negro movement. He further stated, 'We hope to emerge with a united strategy because I think our goals are all the same. Black power has not destroyed our movement in any way.' Dr. King said the civil rights movement is not slowing down, and "it's going to have to speed up."

Reurairtel 10/31/66.

Above-referenced airtel indicated that when Markin Luther King, Jr., President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, sent a contract to the University of Pittsburgh prior to his speaking there, it contained a clause that King must be provided with one bodyguard "as required by the Federal Bureau of Investigation." It is essential that this matter be resolved immediately and the record set straight. Due to King's prominence in the civil rights movement and the involvement of an institution of higher learning, the SAC should personally contact the appropriate University of Pittsburgh official to verify the inclusion of this phrase in King's contract. If verified, the University of Pittsburgh official should be advised that this statement is a complete Tabrication on King's part. Also advise the official that the FBI does not provide personal protection for any individual nor advise anyone of the protective measures that should be taken concerning the safety of Anyone. . ..

street . The Pittsburgh Office should then advise Atlanta of all pertinent details so that the SAC, Atlanta can personally set King straight. Atlanta should determine from King the identities of any recipients of such contracts containing this phrase. Atlanta should advise the Bureau of the identities of these recipionts so that an evaluation can be made at that time regarding additional corrective action.

On October 28, 1966.

that Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., will visit that campus on November 2, 1966, as a guest speaker in the Student Union's Public Affairs Mid-Day Lecture Series. He said the lecture will be held in the Student Union Ballroom. King will also be a guest at a 3:00 PM coffee hour in the Student Union lower lounge.

The October 31, 1966, edition of the "Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, " a daily Pittsburgh newspaper, contained an article entitled, "Negroes Hit Pitt on King," which revealed the following:

"Negro students at the University of Pittsburgh are upset about armangements made by Pitt for the appearance of Dr. Martin Luther King on Wednesday, a spokesman said last night.

"The spokesman, Earl Trent, said that no Negro students were invited by Pitt to greet Dr. King on his arrival at Greater Pittsburgh Airport.

"Dr. King will speak at noon Wednesday in Pitt's Student Union.

"Trent, chairman of the Hill Education Project, a volunteer program for students to tutor Hill District children, charged that Pitt's 'white power structure' refuses to recognize Negroes at the Oakland school.

"'If Barry Goldwater or Ronald Reagan were to come to Pitt, 'he said, 'white students would be invited to meet them at the airport.

"Trent, who said he was a spokesman for about 100 Negroes at Pitt and an Undergraduate, noted that Dr. King's mode of transportation from the airport to Pitt was insufficient for a 'man of his caliber.'

"'He will be jammed into a Mustang convertible with all of his aides,' he declared.

"Trent said Negro students were signing a petition protesting Pitt's treatment of their race.

"'This is not the first time that Negroes have been trampled upon by Pitt,' he asserted.
'We want to show the university that we are unified and protest these actions.'"

On October 31, 1966,

dvised that

University of Pittsburgh, makes the arrangements for speakers in the public affairs lecture series and sendsthe official invitations from the University.
He also meets the guests upon their arrival and drives them in his personal automobile, a Mustang convertible, to the University.

said this is normal procedure for guest speakers in this lecture series regardless of the importance of the position of the speaker.

also stated that the contract with King is for his visit with one bodyguard. He said the expenses for King and his bodyguard will be paid by the Student Union from money budgeted to the Student Union by the University of Pittsburgh for this purpose.

stated that even though standard procedures are for to pick up the guests in his personally-owned automobile, it is his understanding that the University plans to make available the University limousine and chauffeur for the purpose of picking up King and his party.

stated that it is expected that approximately 600 people will attend the lecture as this is the maximum capacity of the Student Union Ballroom.

lobby of the airport and retreated to a hallway where they held a conference. Shortly thereafter, KING returned to the newsmen and proceeded to answer questions put to him by the press concerning the recent elections. When KING was asked to expand on his comments concerning certain individuals who were victorious in the election, he stated that he was going to the Statler Hotel where he would confer with his staff and thereafter hold a press conference. KING stated that arrangements would be made through Reverend LKE for this press conference.

SAs of the FBI observed KING, his four staff members and the two individuals who arrived from New York check into the Statler Hotel at approximately 12:40 p.m. KING had been met at the airport by a limousine which apparently had been rented for him through the D.C. Transit Company and after his arrival at the Statler Hotel, this limousine was released by a member of his staff.

At 2:30 p.m., the individual identified as SIPSER was observed to leave the Statler Hotel by cab. At 2:49 p.m., this individual was observed to enter the Teamsters Union office at 25 Louisiana Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C.

At 3:15 p.m., KING and of his assistants left the Statler Hotel and walked to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, 1626 K Street, N.W. At 4:45 p.m., the group left the above address and returned to the Statler Hotel. Beginning at approximately 5 p.m., a brief press conference was held on the 16th Street, N.W., steps to the Statler Hotel. KING's comments were confined to general statements concerning the results of yesterday's election throughout the U.S.

Physical surveilfance discontinued at 5:15 p.m.

Re: Communist Infiltration of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) Internal Security - C

DECLASSIFICATION

On October 29, 1966, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Stanley Levison and Martin Luther King, President of the SCLC, were in contact on that date. The following is, in substance, what they discussed:

Levison commented that in regard to SCLC fund raising, some method should be instituted whereby the name of a contributor could be researched to determine if he has a greater potential for giving, and if so, he could be made a regular friend of the organization (the SCLC).

King said he recently met with Dick Russell, whom he described as a multi-millionaire, a militant opponent of the war in Vietnam, and a former supporter of the Urban League and the SCLC. Russell, King said, later switched his support from the SCLC to the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) and to the Student Mon-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), when these organizations became more active in anti-Vietnam activities. Russell has now become disenchanted with these organizations and would like to resume his association with the SCLC, King remarked.

Communist Infiltration of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC)

King went on to remark that Russell wanted him to serve on the Board of the "New Politics", since he (Russell) is so actively involved with the organization. Levison cautioned King to be very reluctant in becoming a member, since the Board is composed of people like Spock (Dr. Benjamin Spock, renowned baby specialist). Levison said Spock and others like him were the kind of people who could guade King in the wrong direction.

King said Russell was in favor of organizing a new company which would be half owned by the SCLC. It would be the type company that would sell products which the purchaser could buy knowing that the profits would go to the SCLC. In trying to determine what type company would be more profitable, Russell suggested a retail record and stereo tape marketing operation. Levison was reluctant to give his approval for such a venture, adding instead, that he would like to consider the matter in great detail before so doing. King said he expected to go to Russell's house in the early Spring to attend a fund raising affair which he has planned. Russell, King said, has promised him $25,000.00 from the affair. King mentioned that Russell is reputed to be worth eighty million dollars.

In discussing other ways by which the SCLC could raise funds, King and Levison mentioned that there was a plan to sell sermons for radio dissemination. This plan, Levison said, could bring in more than $100.000.00 a year. The problem facing them is to get a sermon writer, since there is such a big backlog of sermons.

The same confidential source advised on October 29, 1966, that Levison and his brother, Roy Bennett were in contact on that date. Levison told him of plans to make Martin Luther King a radio minister, "purely", Levison remarked, for the money which "they" (the SCLC) could get by "conning" advertisers, particularly those which sell to Negro communities.

Communist Infiltration of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC)

They also discussed the possibility of opening a retail record business for the benefit of the SCLC. Bennett expressed disappointment because he said the retail record business was not a very good venture to begin with.

Levison mentioned that King was considering membership on the Board of the "New Politics" group.

Bennett said the "New Politics" group centers around Arthur Wassou (phones(s)) of Washington, D.C.. He also opined that the "New Politics" group is made up of "screwy" people in addition to being a dangerous group of very naive people who would probably move to the "left", particularly in the international area. Bennett said King should not become a part of this group.

On October 21, 1966, the same source furnished information which disclosed that Junius Griffin (Publicity Director of the SCLC) and Stanley Levison were in contact on that date. Griffin said he had been notified that the SCLC's charter in New York State had been revoked because the organization had failed to comply with Article 10-A of the Social Welfare Law, which requires registration by a charitable institution engaged in soliciting funds in the State. As a result of having been so notified, the SCLC will have to re-register Griffin said.

Levison said he was notified that their charter had been revoked and that he had already commenced the necessary procedures to correct this situation. In order to do this, it will be necessary to prepare and submit an annual report to the State of New York. Along with the application containing the signatures of Martin Luther King and Ralph Abernathy (Secretary-Treasurer of the SCLC) will be the annual report, Levison said.

Communist Infiltration of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC)

Volume 1, Number 4, Fall, 1902, issue of "New Politics" reflects that "em Politics" is published quarterly by the Tew Politics Publishing Company at 507 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

"New Politics is self-described as "a journal of Socialist thought, is a quarterly magazine conceived as a forum permitting and encouraging a free play of discussion, controversy and counter position of ideas. It is free from organizational committments and inhibitions and will offer an opportunity for all Socialist views from left to right to confront not only the political reality, but also each other and their critics."

BACKGROUND:

- 1-17-87 " The Pittsburgh Office has advised that Martin buther King, Jr., President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, was scheduled to speak at the University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, on 11/2/66. A source at the university advised that the contract utilized by King to cover his appearance there contained the statement that one bodyguard be provided King "as required by the Federal Bureau of Investigation."

OBSERVATIONS:

This is the first time we have received information indicating this phrase is being utilized by King in his contracts covering his personal appearances. While it is essential that this matter be set straight immediately, it is felt that it would be desirable to verify the existence of this phrase in King's contract. Due to King's prominence in the civil rights movement and the involvement of an institution of higher learning, this contact should be made by the Special Agent in Charge (SAC) personally. The SAC should contact appropriate University of Pittsburgh officials to verify the inclusion of this phrase in King's contract. If verified, these officials should be advised that this is a complete fabrication on King's part. The Pittsburgh Office should then advise Atlanta of all pertinent details so that the SAC in Atlanta can personally set King straight. It should also be determined from King the identities of other recipients of a contract containing this phrase. Atlanta should advise the Bureau of the identities of any additional recipients so that an evaluation can be made at that time regarding additional corrective action. 100-106670-2763

6076 Is the civil rights movement dead? Floyd McKissick, Mational Director of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) says it is. He reportedly commented to that effect during epanel discussion on October 25, 1966, at a Philadelphia conference of radio-television broadcasters sponsored by the Westinghouse Broadcasting Association. In addition, McKissick is quoted as having added that "what we have now is a black revolution, for black people to take what they can for themselves."

If the movement is dead, as McKissick asserts, he is one of the individuals most responsible for its demise. McKissick has loudly echoed the "black power" cries of Stokely Carmichael, leader of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, and it has been their demands for revolutionary action which stopped the civil rights movement in its tracks.

In so doing, they have brought to a halt ten years. of concentrated effort on the part of moderate Regroes and whites who support the movement. When the movement began, it seemed to signify the end of an era of disenchantment and disillusionment for Negroes throughout the land and the beginning of a period in which true justice and equality for all would be established in fact as well as in name.

Thanks to the McKissicks and the Carmichaels, progress toward that goal has stopped and the big question today is whether the movement is "dead as a doornail" as McKissick claims or whether the setback is temporary in Responsible civil rights leaders have been appalled at the harn done by the cries of "black power." In addition, they have taken a strong stand in an effort to right the wrong. Boy Wilkins, A. Philip Randolph and Whitney H. Yeung, Jr., joined forces and issued a public statement in which they clearly and unequivocally denounced "black power" and its inherent danger to both the Negro and the Nation.

Unfortunately, their courageous action was undermined by the one man in the civil rights movement who holds in his hands the power to silence the rabble rousers and give the movement renewed momentum. That man, of course is Martin Luther King, Jr., whose activities have invested him with the mantle of leadership in the movement since it began in Montgomery in 1956.

At first it appeared King had wholeheartedly joined with Wilkins, Randolph and Young in their renunciation of "black power." He reportedly endorsed their statement which appeared in "The New York Times" on October 14, 1966. For the first time in many months, millions had reason to believe and hope that the civil rights movement had rid itself of a cancerous growth and would became its progress with renewed health and vigor.

Much to the anamement and dismay of many, King killed this hope almost immediately. Within three days after the statement appeared denouncing "black power," "The New York Times" reported that King had "clarified" his position concerning it. Reportedly, he agreed with it in essence but did not wish to be included as a signer.

King's pelliating and ambiguous position on the issue is difficult to understand or justify. Those who cry "black power" have continually claimed it has been misunderstood and misdefined. But the record is clear that it stands for open advocacy of violence, insistence on an all-Negro organizational structure in civil rights groups, and reverse racism.

It is equally clear that these things are direct contradictions of the principles underlying the legitimate civil rights movement: a nonviolent approach, combined Hegro-white action, and the elimination of racism.

The great American tragedy of our time would be the failure of Martin Lather King, Jr., to meet the current challenge which "black power" represents to the civil rights movement. His failure to do so would mean that for some reason King is willing to let the legitimate civil rights movement die. This, in turn, would seem to indicate that King's goal is different than that of Wilkins, Randolph and Young.

It appears that King's decision to straddle the feace on the issue of "black power" was a carefully calculated one. "The Atlanta Journal" of October 13, 1966, reported that King, as head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), was having an important meeting with his advisors. Undoubtedly the move Wilkins, Randolph and Young proposed to make through the issuance of public statement was known to King and he was seeking advice on what his stand should be.

It may have been that King's advisors deemed it best for him to avoid condemning anyone. Or, they may have felt that with the battle lines drawn between McKineick and Carmichael on the one hand and Wilkins, Randolph and Young on the other, everyone would suffer and only King would stand to benefit and would be left the unchallenged leader. Or, they may have had still other interests in mind.

In this connection, it is interesting to note that the newspaper article identified King's advisors as Bayard Bustin, Clarence Jones, Stanley Levison and Harry Wachtel.

If these individuals constitute Eartin Lather King, Jr.'s brain trust, the civil rights movement may well be dead and King's supporters and followers, both Negro and white, may well rue the circumstances of fate that led them to bank so much on one man.

The backgrounds of Rustin, Jones, Levison and Wachtel raise serious questions regarding their degree of influence over Martin Luther King, Jr. The Congressional Record of August 13, 1963, for example, indicated that Rustin is a past member of the Communist Youth League and attended the national convention of the Communist Party as an observer in 1957.

In addition, Rustin reportedly traveled to Russia in 1958 to participate in a communist propaganda spectacular called "Monviolent Action Committee Against Muclear Weapons." Upon his return, he played a key role as an organizer of a student march on Washington which the east coast communist newspaper, "The Worker," hailed as a communist project,

There is no doubt that King has relied heavily on Rustin for guidance for a long time. In fact, Rustin reportedly was King's part-time side for a five-year period from 1955 to 1960.

There are reports that Stanley Levison also has acted as a counscior to King for a long period of time.

As a matter of fact, he once held a position as a vice president in the ECLC. The Congressional Record of July 21, 1966, indicated Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party as late as 1963.

CONTRACTOR CONTRACTOR OF THE SECRETARY CONTRACTOR

Harry Wachtel reportedly is a New York attorney, like Stanley Levison, and has become active in King's behalf through his acquaintance with Levison.

The spectre of communist influence on King is not a new development. The nationally syndicated columnist Joseph Alsop referred to it in April, 1984, in a column concerning King's employment in the SCLC of an individual named Jack O'Dell. Alsop stated that King had been warned by Government officials that O'Dell was a "genuine communist article," and marned too that an even more important associate of his was "known to be a key figure in the covert apparatus of the Communist Party."

Fuch associations and, more particularly, guidance from such individuals could well explain King's failure to take a strong stand in opposition to McKissick and Carnichsel. They have been exhorting their followers not to support the Administration's action in Vietnam, to refuse serving if drafted, and to tear apart our cities with violent acts of civil disobedience. These domands well serve communist aims to bring about a communist victory in Vietnam and to divide the masses along class lines to foment disorder in the streets.

Such guidance would help to explain also why King split with men like Wilkins, Randolph and Young on the issue of whether civil rights leaders should be speaking out on matters of foreign policy or whether their role should be confined to civil rights matters. It will be recalled that King attempted to project his views to criticism of fighting in Vietnam but the responsible civil rights leaders took a stand in opposition to him.

It would appear that King's advisors have a broader goal than the civil rights movement in this country. There is talk that King will travel extensively abroad to areas such as Latin America to speak out in behalf of the poor, Negro and white alike, in underdeveloped countries.

Perhaps being the recognized leader of 22 million Signatures in this country is not enough. If the image of him one he projected as the "savier" of the downtrodden throughout the world, his preetige and influence will grow to a degree which will enable him to dictate domands in a voice that will ring loud and clear through the halls of Congress and in the White House. Buch would depend on the backgrounds of his advisors and the nature of the domands they would be whispering in his ear.

Should that come about, the religious groups, foundations and others who have contributed millions to support King and his activities could find that their generous support had spawned a monster seeking to devour them.

The saddest part of it all is that the American Megro may well be left in the lurch with his dreams of true equality and justice in a united country free of prejudice and bigotry shattered.

To repeat, Martin Luther King, Jr., could be the great American tragedy of our times.

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. SECURITY MATTER - C

On Saturday, October 29, 1966, at 8:30 p.m., at the Bergen Technical High School Theater, 200 Hackensack Avenue, Hackensack, New Jersey, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., under the auspices of Fairleigh Dickinson University's Arts and Letters Commission of the Student Council, Teaneck Campus, Spoke on nonviolence and the misunderstanding which exists between individuals, ehtnic, and radical groups in America.

estimated that between three to five hundred people attended the function, that it was conducted in an orderly fashion and that there were no demonstrations or outward incidents of any kind.

"The Morning Call", a Paterson, New Jersey, daily newspaper, on Monday, October 31, 1966, carried an article titled "King Asks Clerics' Aid." It was written by Roger Beirne, Staff Writer, and was carried on page seven of this edition. It reads as follows:

"Dr. Martin Luther King, in an appeal for religious persons to enter into channels of communications that would lead to understanding between Megroes and whites in the nation, talked before an audience of 350 persons Saturday at the Bergen County Vocational High School.

"The Nobel-Prize winner and civil rights leader talked and answered questions for 2 hours before an audience that filled only one-third of the auditorium and was bulwarked by a delegation of Roman Catholic seminarians numbering over 100.

CONVERENCE (SCLC) Mr. Sullivan MARTIN LUTHER KING; SUBJECT: SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE (SCI POSSIBLE GRANT OF $3,000,000 FROM FORD FOUNDATION CONTACT WITH My memorandum to you of 10/25/66 reflected a call to relative to confidentially advising him that McGeorge Bund; President, Ford Foundation, had contacted Martin Luther King offering a grant of $3.000.000 to the Southern Christian Leadership was grateful for the information Conference (SCLC). furnished him yesterday. He expressed alarm and indicated that although the Ford Motor Company had little control over the Ford Foundations he nevertheless would immediately attempt to get i touch with Bundy and do something about this matter. called me back at 11:30 this morning. he had contacted Bundy and had asked him for an appointment within the next several days. Bundy asked why he wanted to see him. 5 replied he was in receipt of information concerning the ract that the Ford Boundation ... wanted to have dealings with the Bundy asked for the source of his information. Bundy stated under him his source did not want to be divulged. the circumstances he would refuse to talk to and would discuss the matter only with the source. Bundy then asked if the source was the FBI. refused to reveal the source and the conversation was terminated. stated he thought Bundy had been rather high-handed in the conversation; however, he wanted to request that the Director give serious consideration to an FBI representative contacting Bundy, inasmuch as this matter represents one of indicated his [C] great importance to the Ford Motor Company. company had had quite a number of "hard blows" from the Ford Foundation over the years and most certainly a liaison between this foundation and Martin Luther King would be a serious blow the company. REC- 61 rather doubtful concerning the advisability of our going further in this matter. Stated he realized this; however, he wanted to express again the importance of this matter to the Ford Motor Company. He stated he did not know Bundy; however, Bundy had apparently been rather snobbish in dealing with the Ford people. He explained that when Bundy first took this job, Bundy had been invited to Detroit to meet Henry Ford III and the top people of the company. At that time Bundy was point-blank advised that he should be careful in administering the Ford Foundation, inasmuch as this Foundation had caused serious harm to the sales of the Ford Motor Company. Bundy allegedly stuck his nose in the air and stated "I have a social responsibility to fulfill."

once again stated that any liaison between the Ford Foundation and Martin Luther King would "set his company back to beat hell." He asked again that we consider contacting Bundy directly and stated he would appreciate knowing of any action taken in this regard.

ACTION:

I personally feel that Bundy is of the psuedo-intellectual, Ivy League group that has little respect for the FBI. He was friendly on the surface while at the White House and I met him frequently. Under the circumstances, it appears rather doubtful that contact with him by the FBI will convince him one way or another. It is, therefore, recommended that I advise that, while we appreciate his concern, there is some doubt that contact by us with Bundy would amount to anything. It will be suggested to him that he might desire to bring this matter to Mr. Henry Ford's attention, in the event Mr. Ford desires to attempt to exercise any control over Bundy.

Conversation, noted that Mr. Ford was out of the country at the present time.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation Washington, D.C.

Dear sir,

At a dinner party in my home the other evening, a responsible, non-extremist friend stated that she had heard on good authority that Martin Luther King was a card carrying Communist. I questioned her as to her source, and she named a mutual friend, whose source, she claims, is J. Edgar Hoover.

Mr. Hoover, do you have information that Dr. King is now, or ever has been a card carrying Communist? Is this friend correct in citing you as the source of this information?

I am interested in seeking for all Americans, protection from libelous slander. If this is such, I would like to correct this statement before it goes farther. If it is true, I would also like to know it from one who should surely know.

Thank you for any assistance you can send me.

Dear Senator Russell,

Our country has the most to offer of any other country in the world but how did we get to our present status?

Certainly you will agree that it was attained through the great sacrifice of many. And the motivation was provided by our Free enterprise system of government.

Accordingly, I am appalled to see that Dr. Martin Luther King is now striving for a guaranteed minimum income for the "poor"

Senator Russell, would this not be one step closer to socialism? As it appears to me, the people who believe in working for a living would bear the brunt of this program and in essence end up supporting those people who don't mind living on dole.

As you are a most influential member in Congress I would appreciate your strong opposition if this program is introduced in your chambers.

Also we all know of ML. King, affiliation with the Communist conspiracy through the Southern Conference Educational Fund. Why is this not made public?

It is most assuring to know that we have representatives to our government of your caliber (although I must say they are in vast minority) and wish to support you whenever you are in the need of help.

Communist Infiltration of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC)

Internal Security - C

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on October 23, 1966, that Stanley Levison was in contact with Jessie Jackson (SCLC staff member assigned to operation "bread basket" in Chicago) on that date. The following is what transpired during their contact:

Jackson said he was concerned if Levison was planning to come to Chicago next week since he (Jackson) and the "Doctor" (Doctor Martin Luther King, President of the SCLC), were supposed to have lunch on Thursday (October 27, 1966), with some Negro press writers, and on Friday, "bread basket" meets. Levison promised to be there on Tuesday and would work with Jackson on Tuesday and Wednesday. Jackson told Levison he should come to 5748 Kinpark Avenue, which is located two blocks from the University (University of Chicago).

Levison, in diverting his attention from Chicago to Houston, Texas, said Carol (Carol Hoover, SCLC field worker), was in Houston working on the SCLC project. He said even though Hoover has had experience in such things, she should have some supervision because the project is so important to the SCLC. He described the project as one which has never been undertaken before, and it entails turning to the community and organizing things in the community so that "you are solidly resting on the Negro community".

ENCLOSURE /

Fe: Communist Infiltration of the SCLC Internal Security - C

The state of the s

Jackson mentioned addressing the American Jewish Congress (AJC), on October 22, 1966, and came away feeling that the relationship with the AJC had not been sufficiently appealed to; that it was necessary to cultivate relationship with the rabbis all across the country. Levison replied that reaching the rabbis was not always effective for reaching a slum landlord, because a slum landlord often does not go to a synagogue. Levison said he is on the National Executive Board of the AJC, and for the past couple of weeks the Board has been meeting with the new National President, a rabbi from Cleveland by the name of Lelyveld (phonetic). This rabbi, Levison said, was beaten up in Mississippi; he has taken the position that he will not back up because of "Black Power", but on the contrary, wants to understand it. In fact, according to Levison, Lelyveld had discussions with Floyd McKissick (Director of the Congress of Racial Equality) (CORE), about the topic. Levison described Lelyveld as an untypical white liberal since he was not running away or using "Black Power" as an excuse for diminishing his interest.

Continuing, Levison said the thing about Lelyveld that surprised him was that he is an apologist for "Black Power". Levison said when he (Levison) argued that the term "Black Power" is not a good slogan but stressing at the same time the need for power and the need for black consciousness, Lelyveld argued that the term "Black Power" is a good slogan. Levison said that meant that Lelyveld has a pretty advanced type of thinking. Levison said other Jewish groups gravitate toward the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), because it is a case of middle class liking middle class.

The area Levison would like to see tapped for surport (financial and otherwise) is the Negro community itself. According to him, the Negro community is where there is plenty of money but no one has organized any type of mechanism for getting it, and that one who does this is going to do something revolutionary. He explained that many Negroes do not belong to any social club which raises money for the Negro movement or to churches, but would be willing to give money if they were approached.

Re: Communist Infiltration of the SCLC Internal Security - C

一年ののまで、一次に出版をいると

Levison said he was working on a plan to bring the Negro press to a level of real acceptability and get them tied up to SCLC objectives, and for that he has called a meeting for Thursday, October 27, 1966, (in Chicago). He said he would also get together with some insurance representatives and leaders to explain to them that they along with the "Negro preacher" could have a substantial drive to increase the dividends for their companies. In doing so, a kickback percentage of the gross would in given time go to the SCLC.

In a similar move, Clarence Jones has started a program like this for his insurance company, the Intra-American Insurance Company, of New York, New York. His program is in conjunction with the AME Church in New York City. The plan, according to Levison, works as follows: the church gets the application signed by its members and gets ten per cent of the first year commission and one per cent thereafter.

In regard to other SCLC fund raising activities, Levison and Jackson empressed dismay at Martin Luther King's plans to go to Jerusalem next year. Levison's opposition is due mainly to the efforts of some to commercialize the venture, and to portray the SCLC as a religious criented organization. In doing so, Levison said, many Negroes would feel that they would not want to become affiliated with a church group.

During their contact, Jackson mentioned that King would be in New York on Friday (October 28, 1966), but said he did not know the nature of his trip. Jackson said he (Jackson) would be in New York on Monday (October 31, 1966) to meet with "those paople" (people supporting operation "bread basket").

Finally, the subject-of travel costs of SCLC officials who travel from one place to another to speak came up. Jackson said he wanted to deal with the issue since it costs the SCLC a lot of money to pay for their jaunts. Levison said in reply that he flies back and forth at will, never charges the SCLC, never has to ask for permission because he pays his own travel.

R∋: Communist Enfiltration of the SCLC Internal Security - C

The same confidential source advised on October 23, 1966, that Stanley Levison and Clarence Jones were in conversation on that date. Levison wanted to know if Jones had been successful in contacting Hoffa's office (James Hoffa, President of the Teamsters Union). Jones replied that there was a possibility that Martin Luther King would have an appointment with Hoffa this week in Chicago. Jones remarked that Paul O'Dwyer (a New York Attorney), told him that Hoffa, like other trace unionists, was afraid of the "white back lash" within his ranks. Levison said Hoffa needs King. Jones said King apparently has reservations about Hoffa and that Levison had better set him straight. Levison said: "I'm not going to tell him, I'm going to kick his head in". Levison referred to the great importance of the Teamsters Union and the fact that King was too innocent in this area. Levison said he would talk to King about this in no uncertain terms.

On October 24, 1966, the source furnished information which disclosed that Stanley Levison was in contact with United Airlines about a flight to Chicago, Illinois, that night.

On October 24, 1966, records of United Airlines disclosed a reservation for Stanley Levison aboard flight 159, which was scheduled to depart Kennedy International Airport at 11:55 PM on that date for Chicago.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover FEI Emilding Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

The Minneapolis Star on Friday, October 14, quoted the Chairman of a newly formed Hennepin County committee as saying that you had said "I consider Martin Luther Ying to be the most notorious liar in the country."

This statement was made in connection with the showing of a film entitled "Anarchy, U.S.A." put out by the American Opinion Publishers, the publishing arm of the John Birch Society.

I have known people of this particular orientation to be careless of the truth on other occasions, and I would appreciate greatly if you would let me know if the quotation attributed to you is correct. If it should not be. I shall be pleased to write a letter to the Editor informing the public of the lack of truth in the quotation.

This source advised that to his knowledge, Doctor King and not appear or speak at this meeting.

Other SCLC representatives were present, however, including Reverend Jesse Jackson and Reverend James Orange. Jackson called for a boycott of stores in the 63rd and Halsted Streets thopping area, naming specifically Wieboldts, Sears, and the City Dank of Chicago. Jackson advised that this bank has 480 employees, only eight of whom are Negro. A local minister also urged a boycott of these stores, not limited to those named, primarily because all the civic and business associations in the neighborhood and supporting the urban renewal project which will extend the managing facilities available here, but which will require the collition of residential areas in Englwood which are predominantly beginning.

Concerning the meeting held on the evening of Cotober 1983, at 6718 South Elizabeth, the October 21, 1966 edition of "Chimgo Daily News," a daily Chicago newspaper, contained an abviole reflecting that Doctor Martin Luther King had appeared at this affair and during remarks made by him had called for all out I port of a boycott of stores located in the 63rd Street and Halsted lilest area, the boycott in protest of a local urban renewal project. Hing was quoted as having stated that the project would "put business interests before human interests." The article further reflected that Englewood residents began a selective buying compaign in the area several weeks ago, and hope to translate this Litto a full scale boycott of stores in the neighborhood who are porting the urban renewal project. The article further reflected and a suit opposing the urban renewal project, filed by a localjhborhood group, the Green Street Association, had been dismissed on Cotober 20, 1966, in Circuit Court, Chicago, and the urban removal project was expected to commence in the near future. describing the boycott, which was being recommended for this area, Ring had described it as not an effort to put anyone out of business, but to put justice in business.

The above confidential source, on October 24, 1966, mainsed that on October 21, 1966, Doctor King and a number of his solutions, attended a meeting of the so-called Community Union on or (CUC), 4002 West Roosevelt Road, Chicago, also known as the Chicago Labor Project (CLP). According to the source, this meeting the for the purpose of discussing organizing efforts on the part of the CLP, a combined grouping of civil rights and labor forces, among the lower paid and custodial employees of Chicago area hospitals.

Some 42 persons attended this meeting, composed of both labor and civil rights representatives, whose efforts are directed at organizing these unskilled workers, for the most part Negro, to enable them to improve their wages and working conditions. According to this source, Hing spoke very briefly to those present, but for the most part was present at this affair as an observer.

DeLoach Sullivan - Baumgardner EXTENDED BY - D. Wells REASON FOR October 24, 1966 LUTHER KING, JR. The following information has been supplied by confidential sources of this Bureau who have furnished reliable information in the past. On October 17, 1966, Clarence Jones, an adviser of Martin Luther King, Jr., President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, was in contact with Paul O'Dwyer, New York City attorney and brother of former New York City Mayor William O'Dwyer. Jones informed O'Dwyer that King wanted to meet with James Hoffa, President, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Warehousemen and Helpers Union. Jones did not want any publicity concerning this matter and, therefore, was attempting to arrange the meeting through O'Dwyer. Jones told O'Dwyer that King is very sensitive about this meeting becoming public knowledge until he has a chance to talk to Hoffa. Jones advised that he would accompany King and they would be willing to meet Hoffa at Hoffa's convenience. O'Dwyer promised to help arrange the meeting. On October 19, 1966, this same source advised O'Dwyer told Jones that Hoffa wanted to know the purpose of the meeting. Jones commented that King has felt for some time that most of the support for the civil rights movement comes from the same unions. King is of the opinion that Hoffa's union might be willing to support the civil rights movement to a greater degree because of the 450,000 Negroes in that union. King wants to discuss of this matter with Hoffa, in an effort to get Hoffa more involved in the civil rights movement. This meeting should be as soon as possible because King is disgusted with the leadership of the Aperican Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial (12)ETWILL Caste: REC 54100-106670 - 100-438794 SEE NOTE PAGE 2 congressing and advised that on 10/17/66 Clarence Jones. a former member of the Labor Youth League, a communist-front organization, and now a principal adviser to Martin Luther King, Jr., President, Southern Christian Leadership Conference, was in contact with Paul O'Dwyer, New York City attorney and brother of former New York City Mayor William O'Dwyer. Jones wanted O'Dwyer to arrange a meeting between King and James Hoffa, President, International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Warehousemen and Helpers Union. Jones advised that King is very sensitive regarding this meeting and does not want any publicity concerning it. If a meeting could be arranged, King, accompanied by Jones, would be willing to meet Hoffa at Hoffa's convenience. O'Dwyer promised to help arrange this meeting.

On 10/19/66, advised O'Dwyer told Jones that Hoffa wanted to know the purpose of the meeting. Jones replied that King thought that Hoffa's union might want to support the civil rights movement to a greater degree because of its 450,000 Negro members.

According to Jones, this meeting should be as, soon as possible because King is disgusted with the leadership of the American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations. This latter organization, according to King, has not moved into the civil rights field and is partially responsible for the white backlash.
